

Report- Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj – The Founding Father of Indian Navy.

Event: Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj – The Founding Father of Indian Navy.

Date: 31st October, 2023.

Objectives: To remember the contribution of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj in building the Indian Navy.

Highlight: The NSS volunteers of S.M. Shetty College of Science, Commerce, and Management Studies participated in the activity named Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj – The Founding Father of the Indian Navy. The session was about the Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj and how he established a strong naval force to protect the coastline of his kingdom which is still helpful for the Indian Navy. He realized the importance of a strong navy in safeguarding his kingdom from the attacks of foreign invaders, especially the Portuguese who had already established their naval dominance in the Indian Ocean. Shivaji Maharaj built a formidable navy comprising warships, frigates, and gallivants, equipped with cannons and skilled sailors. He also established naval bases at various strategic locations along the coastline. His contribution to building the Indian Navy is still remembered and celebrated in India.
