Day 2: Volunteers woke up as per the scheduled explained to them and went for jogging, exercise and yoga session, after the completion of morning schedule they were instructed about the rules and regulations to be taken care of at the time of activity and then went for the activity in the village. Cleaning and Beautification of the village was been scheduled on the day. Volunteers cleaned the village and helped the villagers for their selvage related issues by making a proper path for their waste water which were getting choked. These works of volunteers were appreciated by the villagers as well as by the sarpanch and even some of the villagers voluntarily came and worked with us. After that a session on “How to create your own space in this competitive world” was taken by “Mr. Deepak Khanolkar” it was a mind opening session for the volunteers which gave them a proper guideline for their future. Volunteers actively participated in the session and had a wonderful experience which is definitely helpful to them in their future. The other session was taken by the teaching faculty from the college “Adv. Hamid Khan” on “Women Rights” which was indeed a very interesting session and then volunteers were given time for their skit practice.

Day 5: Volunteers woke up as per the scheduled explained to them and went for jogging, exercise and yoga session, after the completion of morning schedule they were instructed about the rules and regulations to be taken care of at the time of activity and then went for the activity in the village. Survey and Awareness were the activity scheduled for the day. Volunteers were divided into groups and were allotted with the works. Survey was conducted to know the needs of the village so that we can plan accordingly and help them in every best possible way we can. The awareness was related to cancer and many other diseases. Volunteers explained the villagers about the symptoms of the diseases also they were explained the precautions to be taken care of for the prevention of such diseases. Later, a session on "Domestic Violence" was conducted by "Mrs. Sushila Vijaykumar" volunteers had a great session as they were introduced by some lesser-known laws which actually plays a great role at the time of need also they were instructed to perform a skit on topics given to them. Volunteers actively participated in the session and had a good time. Later, a session on "Personality Development" was scheduled by "Prof. Jeevan Vichare" (DC of Thane District) volunteers had a fun time with him as they got to know about his struggle for what he is today. Also, they learned many lessons which will definitely help them in their future. Volunteers were then given time for their skit practice.

Day 6: Volunteers woke up as per the scheduled explained to them and went for jogging, exercise and yoga session, after the completion of morning schedule they were instructed about the rules and regulations to be taken care of at the time of activity and then went for the activity in the village. A health check-up was organized for the villagers which included BMI (Body Mass Index) and other, regular check-up. We received a good response from the villagers and since we had a lot of people coming for the check-up and the doctor had less forms so, they had to continue the next day. Also, various suggestions were provided by the doctor to the villagers for a healthy lifestyle. Also, a survey was conducted regarding the same for our feedback. A cultural fest was organized to encourage the children of the village it included sports events, elocution, dance, skit, singing, rap also gifts and certificates were given to the children to encourage them to participate in their future. Later, a session on “Scientific Temperaments and Anti-Superstitions” was been scheduled by “Mr. Swapnil Shirsath and Team” it was an eye-opening session for the volunteers as they were made to know the fact behind magic tricks and the scientific reasons behind the beliefs. The programme officer's and the leaders together gave a surprise to the volunteers in the form of “Camp Fire” and an “Adivasi Act” performed by the leaders. Volunteers enjoyed the camp fire by singing, dancing and by doing many other fun activities.
