Report: Rashtra Bhasha Diwas Karyakram.

Event: Rashtra bhasha diwas Karyakram.

Date: 6th March, 2024.

Objectives: To analyze its role in promoting cultural identity, linguistic diversity, and socio-economic development within Maharashtra and across India.

Highlight: The NSS unit of S.M.Shetty College of Science, Commerce and Management Studies, Powai participated in Rashtra Bhasha Diwas Karyakram. The historical significance of Marathi, its official status in Maharashtra, linguistic diversity, cultural identity and role in socio-economic development, challenges, opportunities, and recommendations for promoting it as a national language. Marathi's rich literary heritage, cultural contributions, and importance in governance underscore its significance. Despite challenges like language dominance and urbanization, initiatives like language preservation and digitalization offer opportunities for its growth. Upholding Marathi is crucial for preserving cultural identity, fostering inclusivity, and promoting socio-economic development in Maharashtra and across India.
