

Report- Maharashtra Gaurav Din Karyakram, Convocation Hall, Fort.

Event: Maharashtra Gaurav Din Karyakram, Convocation Hall, Fort.

Date: 27th February, 2024.

Objectives: To examine the status and significance of Marathi as a national language and to analyze its role in promoting cultural identity, linguistic diversity, and socio-economic development.

Highlight: The NSS volunteers of S.M. Shetty College of Science, Commerce, and Management Studies, Powai participated in Maharashtra Gaurav Din Karyakram at the convocation hall, fort. The historical significance of Marathi, its official status in Maharashtra, linguistic diversity, cultural identity, role in socio-economic development, challenges, opportunities, and recommendations for promoting it as a national language. Marathi's rich literary heritage, cultural contributions, and importance in governance underscore its significance. Despite challenges like language dominance and urbanization, initiatives like language preservation and digitalization offer opportunities for its growth. Upholding Marathi is crucial for preserving cultural identity, fostering inclusively, and promoting socio-economic development in Maharashtra and across India.
