Report- CLEANLINESS DRIVE AT KALINA CAMPUS

Event: Cleanliness Drive at Kalina Campus.

Date: 4th March, 2024 and 5th March, 2024.

Objectives: To document and evaluate the cleanliness drive conducted at Kalina Campus, focusing on its impact, effectiveness, and contributions to promoting a clean and hygienic environment.

Highlight: The NSS Volunteers of S.M. Shetty College of Science, Commerce, and Management Studies participated in cleanliness drive at Kalina Campus. The cleanliness drive at Kalina Campus was a resounding success due to several key factors. Firstly, the active participation of volunteers from all segments of the campus community, including students, faculty, and staff, showcased a shared commitment to a clean and hygienic environment. Secondly, innovative waste management strategies, such as recycling and composting initiatives, not only reduced waste sent to landfills but also raised awareness about responsible waste disposal. Thirdly, the drive led to a noticeable improvement in cleanliness and hygiene standards across the campus, evident in reduced littering and improved sanitation facilities. Moreover, the collaborative effort towards environmental sustainability, involving stakeholders from different departments, fostered a sense of community responsibility. Beyond physical cleanliness, the drive promoted community well-being, positively impacting morale, productivity, and satisfaction. Overall, the drive instilled a culture of environmental consciousness and collective responsibility, contributing to a more sustainable and harmonious campus environment.
