Report: Fire Marshal Training Session

Event: Fire Marshal Training Session

Date: 24th November, 2022

Objectives: To be aware about how to use a fire extinguisher in some emergency condition.

Highlight: The NSS Unit of Bunts Sangha's S M Shetty College of Science, commerce and management studies, Powai has attended Fire Marshal Training Session for the NSS volunteers and the college staff organized by the College Management. The college teachers, staff, and security was also attending the session the resource person explain about the fire the form of fire (heat + oxygen + fuel) there are four type of fire extinguisher first is ABC extinguisher is used in every fire form, second is CO2 extinguisher used in the electrical fire e.g. refrigerator, third is Fork extinguisher it is mainly used in factory industry and the last one is Ocean then sir has told how to use extinguisher there is one word which is PASS (Pull Aim squish Swing) we have to kept a fire extinguisher in 1 to 2 feet distance Fire extinguisher moves in anticlockwise. The basic knowledge was given about the pipes and the equipment used like hydro ball gun, fire blanket. The capacity of the gun is 10 to 15 kg. These things are in the fire brigade. Fire blanket. The fire blanket is a fiber material used to save the people in the fire condition. The household fire control training was also taught to the people and then basic rules that should be followed in the house. The Sir also gave practical examples about the things they were told to use. After this, a chance to use the CO² fire extinguisher was given the position and all precautions were told. It was a very informative session.
