Report- A Movie Screening on Environment Conservation and Aarey Forest (Muse Foundation)

Event: A Movie Screening on Environment Conservation and Aarey Forest (Muse Foundation)

Date: 6th August, 2022

Objective: To give an informative and make aware the volunteers about the current Environmental conditions and the Aarey Forest situation.

Highlights: This event was organized by the NSS Unit of S.M.Shetty College Of Science, Commerce & Management Studies, Powai, In collaboration with Muse Foundation (Muse Movie Club) presented a movie screening on Environment Conservation and Aarey Forest. The session started with the introduction of our Resource Person was Mr. Nishant Bangera (Founder of Muse Foundation , Rationalist and Minimalist) by our NSS volunteer Ms.Disha Boricha .The Movie Screening was amazing and the movie was all about the Aarey Forest and the people that live over there , they are some people that are born there like they the son of that soil. Due to Metro Car Shade they are going to harm the rare species of the tree . In that they also said that it is the only forest in the middle of a metropolitan city .We should be proud of this and the people over how to live from the birth where they will some of the 'warli' people stay still over there. We should help and help them in this fight. The resource person also introduced an Aarey Key Foundation Music group. They are awarening the youth by the means of Music they sang a song to motivate the volunteers and with this we ended this incredible session with giving them sapling by our teacher member Prof. Mahesh Sir .

There were a total of 70 Participants in the session.
