EVENT REPORT

TALENT HUNT

Going back to roots, learning about Indian culture at home. Competitions and innovations to make daily life easy Life in the period B.C. or more commonly acknowledged as Before Corona was a much simpler time, may it be for Academic purposes or just in general. The students of our college have always been brilliant in every aspect of life, from academics to sports, writing to music, dance etc. Students love the college because of the idea it resembles, a prestigious educational institute that not only focuses on academic excellence, but also focuses on cultural event

The college has managed to be ahead of the competition with 'Talent Hunt'. From 27th July to 20th July, 2022. The Cultural Committee organized Talent Hunt an Intra-collegiate Cultural Event. The Cultural Committee ensured that this event would be one of a kind. After an ample amount of planning, organizing, staffing, directing and coordinating.

The event was organized with the objective to search the hidden talent among the students specially the first-year students. The competition consisted of 24 events in Performing Arts, Fine Arts & Literary Arts. Total 165 students participated in the event. Selected best students will represent our college at the Youth Festival organised by University of Mumbai.
