Objective & Report– Girgaon Chowpatty Cleanup

Objective: To promote waste reduction, recycling and reuse. To create Public awareness on waste management and environmental concerns.

Reports: The NSS Unit of the Bunts Sangha's S. M. Shetty College of Science Commerce & Management Studies, Powai in collaboration with Times of India helped in cleaning up the Girgaon Chowpatty. The event started at 7 am in the morning on 24th of September, 2018

Our volunteers along with the volunteers from other colleges started cleaning the beach at 7:30. All types of waste was collected at the beach. The major part of the waste was from the idols of Ganesha which were immersed in the sea after Ganesh Chaturthi. The Times of India

Group made hygiene and priority and provided gloves to our volunteers. The cleanup took place mostly on the beach part. All the waste which was collected was kept in a sack and all that was put together in one place. The activity was concluded at 10 am.

"The objective of cleaning is not just to clean, but to feel happiness living within that environment." Total Volunteers participated
