Objective & Report– NSS Residential Camp

Objective: To make better plan for the village. To understand the problems of village and their needs in a better way.

Reports: NSS unit of S.M. Shetty College of Science, Commerce and Management Studies, Powai have successfully organized 7 days residential camp from 22 December 2018 to 28 December, 2018 at chahade naka, Maswan Vilage, Ta. District: Palghar, Maharashtra, total 73 (37 female and 36 male) students participated in this camp.

In this camp several useful activities for Adivasi people and student of unit are organized. NSS volunteers performed an activity of "500 meter Road Construction and Leveling" at camp surroundings which is going to be very useful for villagers and students especially in the rainy season. NSS volunteers also conducted the socio-economic survey and it is going to be communicated to the Tahsil office at Palghar which will help the government to make better plans for this village and better understanding of village problems and their needs. The NSS team also made awareness about "Water Pollution - causes and effects" among the villagers. The unit also inaugurated an awareness banner near the common well of the village about the water pollution. The NSS team also made awareness about " Good Touch and Bad Touch" among the school students. NSS volunteers donated clothes to poor needy Adivasi brick makers in the Maswan village. NSS volunteers constructed a protective layer around 195 saplings of trees at Prathmik Arogya Kendra Kokner, Maswan. NSS volunteers constructed "Vanrai Bandhara" at Kokaner pada, Maswan which is going to be very useful for water conservation as well as water availability for the farmers and animals.

Report– NSS Residential Camp

The construction was guided by the gram panchayat head Mrs. Sanjay Pawar. NSS volunteers also taught Adivasi children in Anganwadi. Here the students used songs and demonstrations to improve the vocabulary skills of children. NSS volunteers also taught 3-4 hours for 5 days to adivasi children in Marathi school and maswan village school. Dance and Entertainment competitions were organized for the Adivasi Children's at the campsite. In this event around 130 Adivasi Childrens gathered and took part in various competitions like sing, dance and skit competition etc. Children enjoyed it a lot. At the end of this event every child is awarded with a gift and also provided snacks and chocolate. NSS volunteers celebrated 25th December as Christmas day with adivasi children by singing songs and by distributing cake. During these 7 days the tea, breakfast, lunch and dinner was prepared by NSS volunteers only by using wood fire. The Maswan village is cleaned by volunteers by cutting the excessive grass and making the road cleaned. Also spread awareness about the cleanliness among the villagers. A session is conducted by Prof. Ashish Navik Sir on "Importance of Villagers' ". An interactive session is conducted by Prof. Sandesha Shetty on "Leadership Exploration"

An interactive session was conducted by Dr. Farooq Shaikh on day to day life tips on health. A session was conducted by Mr. Santosh Pandey an ex-NSS volunteer on "importance of knowing yourself". A session was conducted by Mr. Hamid Khan on section 377. For all 7 days morning jogging and yoga activities are conducted daily at 5:30 am

NSS Programme coordinator of Mumbai University Prof. Pranav Panchal visited the camp for inspection. He oriented students about camp duties and what are the expectations of the central government from the NSS unit. He also explained the programme for this year.
