Introduction:

The Bunts Sangha SM Shetty College of Science, Commerce, and Management Studies is a higher education institution located in Mumbai, India. Like many colleges, it has several internal committees, including an Internal Cell Committee.

The Internal Cell Committee is responsible for ensuring that the college complies with the Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Act, which is a law in India that aims to prevent sexual harassment in the workplace and educational institutions. The committee is made up of faculty members, staff, and student representatives.

The committee's main responsibilities include:

- 1. Creating awareness about the POSH Act among students, faculty, and staff.
- 2. Conducting training sessions and workshops on preventing sexual harassment and how to file a complaint.
- 3. Investigating complaints of sexual harassment and taking appropriate action.
- 4. Ensuring that the college has a safe and secure environment for all students, faculty, and staff.

The committee plays a crucial role in creating a safe and inclusive environment for everyone in the college. It is important to note that sexual harassment is a serious issue that affects many people, and it is essential to have a committee like this in place to address it.

In conclusion, the Internal Cell Committee of Bunts Sangha SM Shetty College of Science, Commerce, and Management Studies is responsible for ensuring that the college complies with the POSH Act and creating a safe and secure environment for all students, faculty, and staff.
